A.P.S. BULLETIN # 1

JANUARY 26, 2010

SUBJECT: INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SAINT PATRICK'S COMMITTEE 2010
SCHOLARSHIP RESEARCH PAPER CONTEST

1. The St. Patrick's Day Parade and Celebration Committee has invited all members of the Auxiliary Police Program to participate in their upcoming 2010 Scholarship Research Paper Contest. This contest is funded and administered by the St. Patrick's Day Parade and Celebration Committee, and is being extended to the Auxiliary Police Program as an affiliate organization which marches in the Saint Patrick's Day Parade.
2. To be eligible to participate, the Auxiliary applicant or family member (son, daughter, spouse, brother, sister, niece, nephew, grandchild, grandniece, grandnephew and grandchild) must be currently enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate accredited college or university or high school. Monetary awards will be conferred upon the winners after determination by the St. Patrick's Day Parade and Celebration Scholarship Committee for 2010.
3. Details, instructions, and requirements regarding this award are to be found in the attached application. Duplicate (photocopied) applications are acceptable. Questions should be addressed as directed in the application, and not to the Auxiliary Police Section. Members should note that the Auxiliary Police Section is an affiliated organization.
4. Auxiliary Police Coordinators and Auxiliary Police Commanding Officers will apprise members of their units of the contents of this bulletin and encourage active participation.
