CITY OF NEW YORK
AUXILIARY POLICE SECTION

A.P.S. BULLETIN #4

February 8, 2011

SUBJECT: REVISED CITYWIDE AUXILIARY POLICE PARTICIPATION IN THE INTERFAITH MEMORIAL SERVICE

1. On Sunday March 13, 2011, the Auxiliary Police Section will host the 23rd Annual Interfaith Memorial Service. This service honors New York City Auxiliary Police members who have died during the previous year, as well as those members who made the ultimate sacrifice while performing Auxiliary Police duty. Please note: The date and location of the ceremony have been changed.

2. Each Auxiliary Police member is invited and encouraged to attend this service. Department officials have been extended an invitation and will be in attendance. The Interfaith Memorial Service will begin promptly at 1400 hours. Members who wish to participate in this service should note the following information:

DATE: Sunday, March 13, 2011

REPORT TIME: 1300 hours

LOCATION: East Midwood Jewish Center
1625 Ocean Ave
Brooklyn, N.Y. 11230

UNIFORM: Regulation duty jacket, hat, long sleeve shirt, tie, trousers. Summer Blouse and white gloves are optional. No cargo pants, turtlenecks, V-neck sweaters, or police equipment (i.e. baton, etc.) will be worn/taken into the church.

Note: Auxiliary Police members will have the option to report to their commands prior to the event or to report directly to the church at the stated time. Each member in attendance will be credited with time for their participation.

3. Uniform inspections will be conducted prior to the service by the unit Auxiliary Police Coordinator and/or Supervisor.
