3. The following will be a breakdown of Chapter Thirteen to Chapter Eighteen in the Auxiliary Police Basic Training Course Manual.

2. The Auxiliary Police Basic Training Course (BTC) is currently a sixteen (16) week course for forty-eight (48) hours of training. Effective immediately, the Basic Training Course will be extended to eighteen (18) weeks for a total of fifty-four (54) hours of training. The additional six (6) hours will be added to the Baton/Unarmed Self-Defense/Handcuffing/Frisking/Military Drill Chapters. The lengthening of the Baton/Unarmed Self-Defense/Handcuffing/Frisking/Military Drill Chapters will provide the instructors ample time to properly instruct/demonstrate the appropriate techniques to successfully complete the physical component of the Basic Training Course. All instructors must ensure each student is tested in every segment of the Baton and Unarmed Defense Test. In addition, all instructors will dedicate the first fifteen (15) of each class to military drills with an emphasis on saluting.
